A note on our food practices:

We use locally grown ingredients where available. Most of our chicken, beef, pork, goat, lamb, turkey and eggs are raised locally and with farming practices we support. We use local milk, locally milled flour, and we source local produce from dozens of farmers.

Our breads are scratch-baked locally. We make our own sauces, dressings, and all our dishes from scratch in our kitchen.

We care about our ingredients—and we grow some of them in our garden across the street.

We make all our dishes to order with fresh ingredients on real cooking equipment (no microwaves)—and real food takes a little longer to do well—so thank you for your patience as we prepare your meal.
